

The Voice, Terra Linda High School’s student newspaper, invites you to become a subscriber and patron. Last year, with your support, we covered more breaking news than ever, increased the size of our program, and launched our new website, thevoice.srcs.org. This fall, we will continue to push our technological boundaries and use our larger size to develop our breaking news coverage without sacrificing the quality of our traditional reporting. We will also constantly update our website to provide our community with easy and convenient access to all of our stories, photos, and features.

The Voice has consistently advanced from a mere school-news publication to a serious student-run news source, trying to present a local spin on global issues in this increasingly complicated world. Hopefully, by reading The Voice, students become aware of their place in the grand scheme of news. The Voice staff members, meanwhile, take their extensive training, experience, and collaborative work ethic with them into their careers.

The Voice relies heavily on patrons – parents, guardians, extended family, and community members – to help support publishing costs, investigative work, and staff development. Besides writing and producing the paper, staffers raise money for equipment, conferences, printing supplies, and journalism association memberships. Our publishing costs have been rising steadily, and our annual budget is expected to approach $6,000. With our program’s continued growth, your support is more important than ever!

As a patron, you will receive a one-year subscription to The Voice and your name or organization will appear in the patron box of each print issue, as well as on our website. Please check the amount you wish to contribute (all contributions are tax deductible). Your check should be made out to The Voice of Terra Linda.

Thank you for your continued support!
